ABSTRACT

Based on data collected by the American Association of Junior Colleges (AAJC), this directory provides information on 678 junior colleges in the United States and its territories for 1960-61. Following introductory material on the scope of the directory, the first section lists the colleges alphabetically by state, providing the following information for each: location; administrative head; AAJC membership; state recognition or accrediting agency; type of control or affiliation; co-educational or single-sex status; date founded; enrollments for fall 1960 broken down by freshman, sophomore, or unclassified status, by sex, and by full- or part-time status; cumulative enrollments; and full-time equivalent faculty numbers. After listing institutions added or dropped since 1961, the directory provides statewide summaries for all junior colleges and for public and private institutions, which include data on number of colleges, AAJC membership, student enrollments for fall 1960, and full-time equivalent faculty. Next, tables summarize the distribution of size of enrollments in junior colleges; the number of independent and church-related junior colleges by type of control or affiliation; and the number of colleges accredited by state. The final sections include a list of individual AAJC members, a directory of junior college organizations and their officers, and an alphabetical listing of junior colleges. (HB)

INTRODUCTION

Through the years the annual Junior College Directory has proved a valuable source of information, unobtainable elsewhere, for both educators and the general public. The Directory is published this year by the American Association of Junior Colleges for the thirty-fourth time.

Information in this year's edition covers the period June 1960 through May 1961, plus total enrollment for each institution as of October 1961. Heavy reliance has necessarily been placed on the accuracy of the reporting institutions.

Data on accreditation, control, type of institution, student enrollment, and administrative and instructional faculty are given for each junior college in the United States and its territories. Summary tables provide information, by state, on (1) all junior colleges, (2) public junior colleges, and (3) private junior colleges. Additional tables show the distribution of size of enrollment in junior colleges, the number of independent and church-related junior colleges by type of affiliation or control, and the number of junior colleges accredited by regional accrediting associations in the different states.

An alphabetical listing of junior colleges is included as an aid to locating the various institutions by state. Membership in the Association not included in the main table is listed and a roster of state, regional, and national junior college organizations, with their principal officers, is provided.

More extensive and detailed information about junior colleges may be found in the Fifth Edition of American Junior Colleges (1960), edited by Edmund J. Gleazer, Jr., and published by the American Council on Education, 1785 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington 6, D.C.

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

Enrollment

Full-time—Students carrying at least ¾ of normal full-time load (12 or more semester hours).

Part-time—Students enrolled in at least one course for credit and carrying less than ¾ of a normal full-time load (less than 12 semester hours).

Freshmen—Students who have completed less than 28 semester hours of college credit at time of registration.

Sophomores—Students who have completed 28 or more semester hours of college credit at time of registration.

Unclassified—Students not counted in any other category who may not have fulfilled the requirements for matriculation or who are enrolled in college-level courses for which they receive no credit.

Faculty and Administration

Administrative—Includes all professional staff not counted in instructional staff.

Full-time equivalent—Computed by determining the number of full-time faculty to which the part-time faculty is equivalent, and then adding the resulting figure to the number of full-time faculty.
